ELISA Workshop Virtual November 8-10

- To continue advancing work relevant to functional safety and Linux applications
- to exchange ideas and feedback from the Linux kernel and Safety communities
- to collaborate to make progress towards achieving the ELISA project's mission and goals
- to provide an informative overview for new and interested community members

Submit CFP to speak by October 1st

Types of Submissions:

- Presentation
- Technical Group Discussion
- Planning Discussion
- Tutorial/Demo
- Dedicated Working Session (work on shared piece of work together)

Session Lengths:

- 30 Minutes (includes 5 minutes for Q&A)
- 60 Minutes (includes 10 minutes for Q&A)
- 90 Minutes (includes 15 minutes for Q&A)
- 120 Minutes (includes 15 minutes for Q&A)

Register now to attend

ELISA
ENABLING LINUX IN SAFETY APPLICATIONS